

MEET YOUR WAR CHEST FACE TO FACE—CANVASSERS WILL SEE YOU AT YOUR HOME

WITH SIERRA MADRE
BOYS AND GIRLS
IN THE SERVICE

Mrs. J. O. Smith, 609 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., has requested the News to make a change of address in her son's paper, saying, "The boys look forward to the home-town paper and I wouldn't like to have him miss it." Lt. Benjamin E. Smith of the Ordnance Maintenance Bn., now has a New York APO. Formerly he was at Camp Campbell, Ky.

Sgt. S. C. Huber of the Signal Corps has returned by plane to Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., after a 10-day furlough at the parental home, 241 E. Grand View. His mother, Mrs. B. C. Huber, has received a cable from her second son, Barney P. Huber, that he is now in France, landing about the first of the month.

Sidney Brock, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Brock, will complete his work at State Teachers' College at Dickinson, N. D., at the end of this month, after which he goes to Northwestern University to continue his V-12 course of training in the Navy Supply Corps for officers' training. He expects to be commissioned as an Ensign upon the completion of his work. The young man graduated from PJC last January and enlisted soon after.

Lt. Rudolph Hartman Jr. of the Marine Air Corps has been transferred from Eagle Mountain Lake, Tex., to Atlantic Field, N. C. He made the trip in his own car which he has with him.

Allen Robertson, FC 3/c, is making others happy with his music as he did in prewar days. He recently gave a harmonica program for the Seabees in his Task Force in the South Pacific, over the air, including three requests numbers.

Mrs. W. G. Evans of 37 Suffolk Ave. has received word from her husband, W. G. Evans, U.S.M.C.R., stationed in Hawaii, that he has received his sergeant stripes. Before his entry into the Marine Corps, Sgt. Evans was employed at the Sierra Madre post office.

Pvt. Paul D. Mattice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Mattice, 570 Brookside Lane, has been promoted to the rank of Corporal at the Muroc Army Air Field.

Triad Club Gives Musical for Guests

The Triad club, music pupils of Mrs. George Morridge, met at her home, 19 W. Orange Grove Ave., Friday evening.

Barbara Bowman, president, announced the program which was followed by a musical quiz, Mary Webster drawing for the championship out of four winners.

GIRL BITTEN BY DOG

Diane Tweddell, age 2, 445 E. Grand View, was reported to the police as being bitten by a dog. She was treated by a physician and is reported not to have been injured seriously. The dog is under observation.

Woman Arrested, Charged with Breaking Into Cabins on Mt. Wilson Trail

Monday, Officers G. G. McMillan and J. Gordon Garrett investigated a partially demolished cabin on Mt. Wilson Trail about a half mile south of Orchard Camp, Little Santa Anita Canyon, and found evidences of a woman living there. About a quarter mile above Orchard Camp they met a woman who gave her name as Alice Anna Degenhardt, aged 44, German born, though she claimed she had been naturalized. She had a leather bag on her shoulders filled with canned goods and other articles and refused to tell where she procured them but at the station she was reported to have confessed she had broken into 11 cabins on Winter Creek and one on top of the trail between Orchard Camp and Camp Leroy on Winter Creek.

She stated she had just broken into a cabin near Camp Leroy by cutting a screen and breaking the window with a stone, taking the goods found in the leather bag. She stated she found a quart of whiskey in one cabin.

She was turned over to the Sheriff's officers in the Temple subdivision, charged with burglary.

Summer Recreation Program Report is Presented

Attendance and Interest High; School Board and City Finance Work

A report was recently made to the City Council and School Board concerning the summer recreation program, conducted under the supervision of Mrs. Tetreau and Mr. Kyle, teachers at the Sierra Madre City school, from June 19 to Sept. 1. The grounds were under supervision between the hours of 9 in the mornings and 5 in the afternoons. Volleyball, horseshoes, paddle tennis, tennis, playground ball, wood shop, crafts, project building, dramatics, library, storytelling and art were the activities of greatest interest to the children.

The interest in the playground activities and the attendance were high for the first eight weeks, but the plunge, summer camp and warm weather made a noticeable decrease in the attendance during the last weeks.

As a whole the program was very successful, appreciated and well received by the children and parents.

The expense of the program as submitted to the Council and School Board, each of which bodies paid one-half, were $707 for salaries of supervisors and $77.18 for supplies and equipment.

Boys in the vineyard west of Michillinda were reported throwing grapes at passing cars. They hit one car, causing an accident.

Kiwaniens Told How Synthetic Rubber is Made at Luncheon

Ladies' Night Will Be Observed Nov. 16; No Meeting Nov. 7

At the Kiwanis club Tuesday, Eugene Lunsford introduced his friend, J. W. Watkins of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., who gave the Synthetic Rubber story in an address and with moving pictures. In the past year, he said, they have increased synthetic production 25 per cent more than the last three years of crude rubber.

Roy H. Pickett spoke of Keep America—American and brought out the thought that we can't do that job unless the people put forth an effort to vote.

President Bruce McGill announced that the Nov. 7 meeting will not be held as usual but that all members are asked to get out with their cars and get all the people to vote. November 16 will be Ladies' Night. Harry A. Lange presided at the meeting.

Luke Gervais, Post Advisor of the Explorers, introduced two of his boys, Donald Colbert and Frank LaSalle. The latter, he stated, will enter the service Tuesday.

Miss Emogene Moor, in the personnel department of the Air Corps, a WAC, stationed at Buckley Field, near Denver, was introduced by J. C. Heasley. She is spending her furlough with her sister, Mrs. Heasley, 536 Oakdale Dr.

Tallman H. Trask, Scout Executive of the Pasadena Council, was a guest, as was Victor E. Teaney, Asst. Scout Executive at Monrovia, who has just been promoted to be a Scout Executive and will be transferred to Piedmont.

King Robey, president of the Pasadena club, was a guest, as was Fred LaLone of the F.F.F.S.

Council Looks Over Army Lease Lands

The members of the City Council and Street Superintendent Jos. T. Swanson were taken Sunday morning by Councilman W. J. Schlitz to look over the lands leased by the Army and note the changes in the contour of the land, which might cause flood conditions.

Emmett Black took pictures of the lands, in order to have proof of conditions to show to Army officials or in case of court action.

Capt. L. M. Evans writes from Holland that it is rather hard to write at present, that he has gone through so much mentally and physically that it will take a little time to recuperate. "I have been staying with a Dutch family here in Holland," he writes. "They are very poor and we have been sharing our Army rations with them so that they are eating better than they have for four years. We can't talk much but manage to make ourselves understood. The man was taken to Germany in 1940 and forced to work in a factory for two years until his health broke.

"Every hour or so we see people dragged down the street by the local police. They are Quislings, the ones who worked with the Germans.

"You remember reading of General McNair being killed. I happened to pass him in my ambulance as he was lying on the side of the road. We had a load and so were unable to pick him up. I recognized his uniform as that of a general but didn't know it was the body of General McNair. When we came back to the spot he had been taken away."

First Letter from Bud Hartman Since August the 8th

The first letter that Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Hartman have received from their son, Pfc. Robert C. Hartman, since the 8th of August came Monday morning. Up until that time mail had been coming through very regularly and naturally the Hartmans were wondering why they were not hearing.

Robert, in an English hospital on D-Day with a broken foot, was unable to continue with his outfit in the anti-aircraft but has since been in a Replacement Depot. A few lines from his letter will be enlightening and a bit humorous:

"Well, I'll be a man in a couple of weeks; we're going to have a party. We have arranged for two chickens, a dozen eggs and two loaves of bread (white). I went to town the other day and had two big dishes of maple nut and vanilla ice cream and topped it with two chocolate sundaes, also walked out with chocolate cone. It was the first I have had since the hospital in England. Mom, you sure picked a hard thing for me to try and get for you—tea cups—I had several but they only lasted about a week. My experience and itinerary have increased considerably and will be very amusing to you when I am able to write about them. We are getting mostly canned and dehydrated foods. We have preserved butter that doesn't melt and our dried cereal has sugar and powdered milk already in it and, you just add water."

Love,
BUD."
The letter was written from Belgium.

Service Pictures Wanted

All voters away from home expecting to use the privilege of absentee voters' ballots should procure their application blanks at once and send them to their local precinct where they expect to vote, as November 2 is the latest possible date that the home board may mail out these ballots.

In Sierra Madre application for blanks may be obtained at the Democratic or Republican headquarters.

The Kiwanis club, in carrying out their drive to have every citizen vote (it does not matter whether Republican or Democratic), is giving a real service. Any one calling in and asking for a ballot will be immediately taken care of. The Kiwanis club stands ready to fill out the application and mail it if the name and address is provided. For Kiwanis phone, 6407; Democratic headquarters, 5441, and the Republican headquarters, 3389 for any information pertaining to these ballots.

Initiation of New Civic Club Members in Pledge Ceremony

Patriotic Decorations Motif of Dinner

At a recent initiation dinner, the Sierra Madre Civic club gave the pledge of membership to nine new members in an impressive candle-light ceremony. Mrs. Alta Butler, president of the club, officiated, and Mrs. John Robertson assisted her in carrying out the initiation. The new members are Mrs. Madelyn Stillman, Mrs. Lois S. East, Miss Trudy Hagen, Miss Sylvia Schuster, Mrs. Jean Foote, Mrs. Gwen Dewey, Mrs. Dorothy Morrow, Mrs. Marleah Hilborn and Miss Mary Catherine Pride. Other prospective members of the club who were unable to attend the dinner will be initiated at a later date.

The dinner was held at the Congregational church, and the Conservo young women's group of the church prepared and served a most attractive dinner. Since the Civic club's principal project at the moment is the conducting of the local War Chest drive, the decorations were carried out in a patriotic and Allied Nations motif.

At the conclusion of the dinner and initiation, the club members were entertained with the delightful singing of Magdalen Chozec, soprano, from Pasadena. She was accompanied by Jean Askew.

Mrs. Virginia Pratt, membership chairman of the Civic club, was in charge of the dinner preparations, assisted by Regina Rivera, Ada Aratin, Muriel Tarr and Bod Doty, while Ruth Miles was in charge of invitations and decorations. Guests at the dinner were Mrs. Jane Burt and Mrs. Marie Keating.

TREATED FOR DOG BITE

William, 12-year-old son of Wm. Annas, 389 N. Auburn, was treated for a dog bite on his hip and calf of leg.

Advance Gifts Gratifying; Block to Block Canvass to Fill the War Chest

Mrs. Rosalie Goodwin Starts Captains on Intensive Drive

William A. Kinney, chairman of the Advance Gift Committee for the local War Chest drive, announces that at the close of the first week of solicitation, the returns have been most gratifying. Although there is still much work to be done by all members of his committee, there is every reason to believe that this will be completed within another week, at the end of which period he hopes to be able to turn over to the War Chest executive board the full share of contributions for which the Advance Gift Committee has pledged itself responsible.

Mrs. Rosalie Goodwin, canvassing chairman, also announces that the block-to-block canvassing began the first of the week, and it is as yet too early for any statement of returns to be turned in by her. However, each of her captains and their workers are covering their districts with assurance and enthusiasm, secure in the knowledge that Sierra Madre citizens will not hesitate to pledge their share. It takes a great many people to canvass every block of the city, and the War Chest Executive Board is deeply grateful to the many volunteers who have offered their time and effort to this work without remuneration of any kind. Not all of us can give our time to this patriotic work, but we can participate with a signed pledge, knowing that a generous America is behind every dollar turned in. Let us strive greatly to match the victories of our men and women in the armed forces with ours—be a part of a great humanitarian organization—GIVE TO THE WAR CHEST.

WALTON W. BAYARD JR.

Ph.M. 2/c of the U. S. Navy

Walton W. Bayard Jr., Pharmacist Mate 2/c in the submarine service is a son and namesake of W. W. Bayard, 305 E. Laurel Walton, before entering the service two years ago, was in the wholesale drug business in Los Angeles and took his military pharmacy training at Columbia. He writes often from the South Pacific, but for 10 months has been unable to see his father, who, although handicapped by poor sight, is seen about town every day as he attends to his own shopping in the time that he can spare from his well cared-for garden.

FROM THE SQUALOR OF INDIA TO PEACE IN THE MOUNTAINS ABOVE SIERRA MADRE

You can't mistake him; for, with knapsack thrown over his shoulders and a blue peajacket, Waldo comes down from the mountains every Saturday to do a few odd jobs and take care of his shipping.

Waldo is an immensely interesting character, recently discharged from the Army in India, where he served under Gen. Stillwell. This man, lined of feature from jungle suns and untold hardship, is tall and muscularly wiry. His gray eyes, however, reveal a man of kindness and understanding, particularly with nature back in our mountains.

Waldo tells us that last year he found four skunks; feeding them bread and milk, they came to know him well. Besides Waldo has much opportunity to study plants and their medicinal qualities. He cannot juggle Latin terms but has a remarkable knowledge of the healing phenomena of our local flora.

One thing strikes us humorously about Waldo. That he is different can be seen in his manner of eating. Waldo eats his dessert first.

"Witnessing the abject horror of emaciated bodies dying from the lack of food so impressed me that I shall devote my life to the preservation of God's abundance and beauty which we are fortunate to have in plenty."

H. I. Hawkhurst, 115 Bonita, reports a valuable painting has disappeared, probably stolen.

Ens. Harry Goshorn McCullery spent Wednesday and Thursday with his uncle, L. R. Goshorn, West Sierra Madre Blvd., before flying to Seattle, Wash., where he will report at Bremerton U.S. Naval Base. He was met at Terminal Island by his cousin, Doris Goshorn Gullion, and her husband, E. C. Gullion and together they came up from Manhattan Beach for the visit. Ens. McCullery has served in the Pacific from Aleutians to the Mexico waters.

Sgt. LaLone in Vital Role as Bombers Fly

An Air Service Command Depot in England—T/Sgt. Julian LaLone, son of Fred N. LaLone, 36 W. Highland Ave., and husband of Dorothy E. LaLone, 585 Woodland Dr., has won high commendation for helping to shatter world's records repairing aircraft at this Air Service Command depot.

He and his fellow mechanics sent back into action the highest number of battle-damaged craft since Air Service Command began operations in England.

"Knockout blow against Germany" was the way his Commanding General, Brigadier General Isaac W. Ott, described the contribution of T/Sgt. LaLone, whose extra effort makes it possible to maintain a constant air cover over Allied armies on the Continent.

AMERICAN LEGION, KIWANIANS PASS V-DAY RESOLUTION

At the regular monthly meeting of the American Legion Post No. 229 of Sierra Madre in the Post Dugout the following resolution was unanimously adopted: A similar resolution was also adopted by the Kiwanis club:

Whereas: World War II is not over when Germany surrenders, and

Whereas: Many of our fighting men in the Pacific will be killed on V-Day and for many, many days thereafter; and

Whereas: A one-day layoff from work will have the same effect on our production of war goods as a one-day strike throughout our nation;

Now, Therefore, be it resolved by American Legion Post No. 297, Sierra Madre, that we place ourselves on record as opposed to a Victory celebration on V-Day as being unfair to our fighting men in the Pacific who are still battling our most barbaric enemy—Japan, and be it further resolved that on V-Day we as a nation redouble our war effort and re-dedicate ourselves before God and man, to our immediate task ahead, namely, winning of the unconditional surrender of Japan by complete annihilation if necessary.

LOCAL NAVY MAN TAKES ARCADIA BRIDE

Viola Marie Haag became the bride of Robert William Terhorst, U.S. Navy Reserve, Friday evening at the Christian Reformed Church of Arcadia in a very lovely double-ring twilight service.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Haag, 846 N. Sunset Blvd., Arcadia, was gowned in a traditional white brocade, fashioned with fitted bodice, sweetheart neck and long sleeves. She wore a bouffant veil and carried a shower bouquet of gardenias.

Two cousins from Los Angeles, Henry Terhorst and Lawrence Canaan, attended the bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Terhorst of 209 W. Laurel. Mrs. Terhorst wore a pearl gray trimmed in fuchsia with the orchid corsage for her son's wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Terhorst are spending the time from now until October 31 traveling about Arizona and New Mexico, when Mr. Terhorst will report at San Francisco at the termination of his leave.

ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW AT PRITCHARD HALL, WITH MRS. HULL IN CHARGE

Edna Stearns Dayton to Make Reviews for Woman's Club

The annual Flower Show which the Women's Society of the Congregational church is planning to have in Pritchard Hall at the Church Friday, November 3, from 2 to 5:30 p.m., promises to be an interesting event as usual. Anyone in the community having flowers, plants or vegetables which they wish to exhibit are invited to co-operate in this Flower Show. Mrs. W. S. Hull is chairman of the committee in charge of exhibits, with the following assistants: Mrs. E. G. Everett, garden flowers and plants; Mrs. Ford Blakeman, flower arrangements; Mrs. Allie Copenhafer, fruits; Mrs. J. S. Billheimer, vegetables. Others on the committee are Mrs. Chas. Askew, Mrs. F. L. Whitney, Mrs. A. E. Morgan and Mrs. H. E. Morley.

Other committees are busy planning for plants, bulbs, aprons, purses and cooked food which will be for sale. Tea will be served during the afternoon.

Priscilla Club Has Tea with Mrs. Everett

Mrs. E. G. Everett was hostess to the Priscilla club Friday afternoon, for their first meeting after the summer. The hostess was re-elected as president for the coming year. Mrs. J. S. Billheimer and Mrs. Catherine Miller presided at the artistic tea table with a color scheme carried out in green and white. The Everett gardens lured the guests to an individual vista of the mountains quite unsurpassed.

"MAID IN THE OZARKS" COMING TO FAMED BELACSO THEATRE

The three-act comedy that played 76 consecutive weeks in Chicago and has been seen by over 1,000,000 men and women... "Maid in the Ozarks" by Claire Givens, is now showing at the famed Belasco Theatre, Los Angeles, with many of the original cast, according to the Belasco Theatres Producing Company. The play billed as "the nation's laugh riot," is compared with "Abie's Irish Rose" by astute showmen because of its unfailing adeptness in packing theatres and seemingly pleasing the people it plays to.

Tickets may be reserved by phoning RICHMOND 6277. Curtain rises nightly and Sundays at 8:30 with two matines every Sunday $2.30 and 5:30 o'clock.

Mabel Hubner Sings for Monrovia Club

Mrs. Mabel Hubner will entertain the Monrovia Kiwanis club next Thursday and our own Byron Hopper will be the accompanist. She was recently guest soloist at the Monrovia Chamber of Commerce barbecue and garden party given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Hayes, with Gustave Rihard accompanying, who also gave several solo numbers.

Mrs. Hubner, a pupil of Mrs. Grace McCarty, E. Sierra Madre Blvd., has been engaged as soloist for the opening of the beautiful new Wilshire Masonic Temple in Los Angeles.

Diamond Wedding for Herman Escherichs

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Escherich, formerly of Sierra Madre, commemorated their 60th wedding anniversary Monday, Oct. 16. Ten years ago in honor of their 50th anniversary they entertained at the Woman's club in Sierra Madre, some 200 guests attending the reception. This year their celebration was somewhat quieter, they being "at home" to their many friends and members of the family last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Escherich have three daughters, Mrs. R. F. Church, Beverly Hills; Mrs. W. F. George, Los Angeles, and Mrs. Martha Morris, Pasadena. They also have two sons, Carl Escherich of Altadena and Walter J. Escherich of Brentwood. They have 11 grandchildren, five grandsons (including Lt. Bruce Masters of Sierra Madre), being in the armed forces. There are five great-grandchildren.

The Escherichs are now making their home with a daughter, Mrs. Morris, at 3003 Margaret Dr., Pasadena, and are both enjoying good health and an active life.

Recipe

A favorite recipe of Mrs. Edward Roach, 40 N. Lima

Beef—French Style

Select a piece of plate roll or brisket. With the beef order a small piece of shin or neck of beef and one-half pound knuckle of veal. Put the shin of beef and veal in a kettle together with a kitchen bouquet (parsley, sage, marjoram, thyme, either fresh or dried), 3 cloves inserted in an onion, and 2 carrots. Season with salt and pepper and cover with cold water; bring slowly to the boiling point and keep simmering for one and one-half hours. Then add the rolled beef and simmer until tender. The result will be a tender, juicy piece of meat with a well-flavored broth.

Lemon Fluff Pie

3 egg yolks	1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1/2 cup sugar	3 egg whites
1/4 cup lemon juice	1/2 cup sugar
	1/4 teaspoon salt

Beat egg yolks, add lemon juice and grated rind; cook on low heat until rather thick. Cool mixture and fold in egg whites, beaten stiff with sugar and salt. Pour into baked pastry shell. Bake 30 minutes at 325° F. from a cold oven start.

"JUNIOR MISS" COMEDY AT PASADENA PLAYHOUSE NOW

Scattered small-fry to the right and left and battered parents down the middle makes a national laugh smash out of "Junior Miss," the Joseph Fields-Jerome Chodorov comedy from the Sally Benson story which comes to the Pasadena Playhouse stage from Oct. 18 to Nov. 5.

Junior misses and junior misters fill the Graves house with comic confusion and the Graves family heads with grey hairs. For every pot of family glue the small-fry tip over along comes a miracle to right it.

"Junior Miss" made Broadway laugh for 720 performances and its national tour stirred ever more guffaws.

Another Open Letter from Roberts MarketWE LIKE TO BE DIFFERENT!

PERHAPS you can recall those unhappy, hungry months of late 1942 and early 1943 when meats of all kinds were so scarce as to be mentioned only with reverence.

KNOWING it to be our business to feed people, in January, 1943 we employed the best cook we could find and installed, in conjunction with our regular delicatessen business, our Cooked Foods Department, a distinct innovation for Sierra Madre.

NOW meats are relatively plentiful, and while occasionally even our usually adequate buying connections seem terribly inadequate, we can truthfully say that we offer a greater variety of beef, veal, lamb and pork than you will find in almost any other market.

IN SPITE OF THIS our Cooked Foods Department and Delicatessen are still extremely popular; but because you personally may not be aware of this point-free boon to tired, point-short housewives, we must use our weekly space to tell you about it.

HERE is a partial list of this week's "menu":

Spaghetti Italiane
Tamale Pie
Carrot Salad
Fruit Salad
Macaroni Salad
Potato Salad
Chili Beans
Lima Beans
Stewed Prunes
Stuffed Peppers
Peas and Carrots

AND for a delicious entree we are featuring

Our Own Genuine Chicken Pies!

IF you have not had the luck to eat one of Betty Hill's chicken pies, you have a treat in store for you.

Many Red Cross Workers Overseas . . .

Red Cross men and women are with troops on fifty-three continental and insular battlefronts, and have gone into the theatres in many instances right along with the invasion forces, or else have followed soon after. Above is Miss Barbara Sweetland, American Red Cross worker, chatting with a small native boy, "somewhere in India."

IT WILL BECOME A TREASURE—Recorded letters, made in USO clubs, are treasured today. Played over and over again in many American homes, they bring into the living room the voice of a loved one in the service. At a cost of seven cents, USO member agency of the National War Fund, can provide these records which become priceless keepsakes to families!

Mrs. Augusta Coats, office secretary at Republican Headquarters in the Sierra Madre Hotel, reports a greatly increased number of daily visitors since the red, white and blue Dewey and Bricke banner was hung over the street entrance. She says it makes people realize how convenient it is to stop in and get information or offer their assistance.

She also stated that, as an increasing number of Democrats are dropping in and volunteering their services, a "Democrats for Dewey" committee has been formed with Dan C. Reib as chairman. This committee is working out of the same headquarters to avoid unnecessary duplication of effort and the use of scarce materials in war time.

Mr. Reib, explaining briefly why he has taken this stand said: "Yes, here is an old-line Democrat who is working for the election of Thomas E. Dewey as President and I have plenty of company all over the United States. The time has come in our political lives when we must be Americans first and Democrats second. This is no time for letting partisanship decide our actions or our votes."

garden. So, armed with a rope Bruce set forth and succeeded in getting the rope on the calf,—which calf, by the way, is no small fry but quite a young bullock. The calf proceeded to go places suddenly and dragged Bruce through the dark and over a 12-foot irrigation ditch, on his back, over stones, etc., as he had hold of something he couldn't let go of, the rope having tightened on his wrist. He fortunately escaped without broken bones, due to the fact he had on a heavy

They were well acquainted with one another's families and neither knew the other was here . . . Dr. W. T. McDougal, 70 Auburn, noticed the pile of papers and books from the scrap drive and one of them was a Robinson's arithmetic, with Byron Hopper's name boisterously scrawled in it with the address 310 W. Ashland, Indianapolis, Ind. The other was an algebra dated 1870. Inscribed on the flyleaf was the following: "There are three things a man needs; good health, religion and good sense. If he can have but one of these let it be good sense; for God can give him health. God can give him grace but nobody can give him common sense." Anyone want to buy a calf?" Bruce McGill has one he might be tempted to sell cheap. It seems that his cow and calf turned up missing Sunday evening and couldn't be found. (The boys sure miss their ice cream when they are on the battle front) . . . Mr. and Mrs. Hartman had not heard from their son for over two months and were getting pretty worried. Monday morning about 6 o'clock they received a phone call from Jack Butler, mail carrier, that there was a letter there for them which was a great relief to them. Shuffle Board Notes

The recent Shuffle Board Tournament held in the City Park was extended to October 15 to give all contestants a chance to play off their games. Play ended last Sunday with one of the best crowds of the season.

Spectators from Los Angeles, Pasadena and Rosemead came to watch and play. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. The participating teams in the tournament were Lauber and Sievwright, Chambers and Miller, Hedges and Durnung, Herring and Gwynn, Sadler and Perlee, True and Karns, Sovinski and Van Meter and Bridgeman and Thomas.

Winner of the individual high score was Joe Sadler who ran up 204 points. Team winners were Lauber and Sievwright. These gentlemen came through the field like true champions.

The Rosemead Horseshoe team will appear at the local courts next Sunday, October 22, to play a tournament with the Sierra Madre team. Everyone is welcome to come out and watch some plain and fancy pitching.

Give Our Fighting Men the Weapons They Need!

HELP PRODUCE WAR ROCKETS

The Rocket has proved to be outstandingly successful among America's "secret" weapons. On every fighting front and on every sea it has proved its worth. More and more has it grown in importance and greater and greater has grown the demand for an ever increased production. The California Institute of Technology has long been the leader in both the development and manufacture of the Rocket. Now the government has asked for a huge increase in the emergency production of this weapon. To meet a current emergency we MUST have more MEN, and immediately. Without this extra manpower, the emergency production demand cannot be met.

We therefore direct this appeal to those of you who are not employed or who may be working in less essential industries. Your aid in meeting our stepped-up production schedule will vitally aid in an early victory and the saving of countless lives.

BIRTHS TWO TO ONE OVER DEATHS

Health Center Building, 211 W. Colorado Blvd., Monrovia, for this District, which includes Sierra Madre.

Births outnumbered deaths almost two to one in the local health district during the past year, according to an annual report made public by Dr. J. M. Furstman, health officer for this section.

Although failing to equal the birth rate of the country as a whole last year, the 1948 babies born to district residents were enough to almost double the low total of 1046 deaths in maintaining the national ratio of nearly 2 to 1.

Included in this district are approximately 150,000 people living in Monrovia, Arcadia, Sierra Madre, Azusa, Glendora, Covina, West Covina and surrounding unincorporated communities.

A.L.A. Activities

Members of Unit No. 297, American Legion Auxiliary, held an enjoyable meeting at the home of Mrs. Rose Galkin Thursday evening. Among those present were Past President Blanche Buie, now a member of the Columbus (O.) Unit, and Mrs. Augusta Coats and Mrs. Williamson. A Hallowe'en party will be the next unit meeting the evening of October 26 at the home of Mrs. Lucille Nollac, East Grand View Ave., where members will come in costume and guests of honor will be the prospective new members.

Eligible to join the Auxiliary now are the mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of men who have been honorably discharged and who are members of the American Legion. Also eligible and with a place of special honor awaiting them are the women who have lost a son, husband, father or brother in the country's service. Eligible, too, are the women who themselves have served and have been honorably discharged. All are invited into Auxiliary membership for the vital and interesting activities ahead.

Capt. H. C. Reavis Pilots Troop Ships, Hauls Giant Gliders

European Theatre of Operations, Ninth Troop Carrier Command Base.

Capt. Henry C. Reavis, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Reavis, 551 Sturtevant Dr., is a pilot of a Troop Carrier squadron and flight leader. Capt. Reavis played an important part in the initial invasion of France by airborne troops. His squadron was one of the first to cross the channel with their load of paratroopers and drop them in the specified zone perfectly. In subsequent missions his squadron hauled giant gliders filled with airborne troops to supplement the paratroopers. For their magnificent work in these missions they were highly commended by high ranking officers of both air and ground forces.

Dr. Pritchard Has News of Son Now in New Guinea

Dr. Arthur O. Pritchard and sister, Miss Martha C. Pritchard, were in San Gabriel Thursday for a visit with Major Guy Gossard, who was in the same unit as Dr. Pritchard's son, Arthur O. Pritchard Jr. at 155th Station Hospital in Australia. His unit is now somewhere in New Guinea.

Major Gossard recently came to the States and will be here until Oct. 25. He said the younger Pritchard was well and doing fine work, that he considered him as one of the "reliables" and that he is in the office of the hospital unit. Major Gossard said that outside of the cities, he considers Australia economically is about where America was at the end of the Revolutionary War.

THANKS FROM RATION BOARD

At a meeting held Tuesday, Oct. 10, in El Monte high school, of eight local War Price and Rationing Boards, it was disclosed that the complete figures on the State gasoline tax report had just been computed and a saving of 16% in gasoline gallonage for the year had been made over last year. This is a substantial saving when one considers the millions of gallons of gasoline consumed by automobiles of the war workers in defense plants alone. Not only was a saving in gasoline made, but think of the thousands of tires and automobile parts that were conserved by this curtailment. However, hundreds of gasoline tanks must be issued each week by volunteers. Sierra Madreans serving at the local board last week were:

Mesdames Gladys Ruble, Gloria Hinshaw, Dorothy Nilles, Margaret Senour, Edith Preston, Essie Lorenzini, Peggy McLaughlin, Lorene Adwell, E. G. Everett, Harriet Dodge, Lotta Hopper, Dora High, Bess Boyer, Vera Gebb, Beatrice Strite, Miss Doris Dennis, Gordon Felts and Cameron Dickinson.

The Girl Scout Council has set aside Friday, November 3, for the annual Father and Daughter evening. Troop No. 1 is filling boxes for the Russian War Relief and will have its next meeting at the home of Mrs. W. A. Summer, 357 Auburn, October 24.

There is a new Troop, No. 7, this year, with Mrs. George H. Schultz and Mrs. John Haily, leaders.

BURTON HOLMES LECTURE AT PASADENA ON FRIDAY EVENING

Burton Holmes, noted lecturer who will give "Colorado, the Inspiring Top of the Nation," second of a Friday night series at Pasadena Civic Auditorium, Oct. 20, has a record of missing only two dates in 50 years of lecturing, says Elmer Wilson, who is presenting the distinguished traveler in the course, "Seeing America with Burton Holmes." Both disappointments were caused by a dust-parched throat after Mr. Holmes had flown over the Dust Bowl.

Starting at Colorado Springs, up Pike's Peak and to luxurious Broadmoor, the pictures taken at "the top of the nation" are said to be an example of Mr. Holmes' finest photography. Depicting the brilliant natural colors of the Rocky Mountains, the trip includes the Garden of the Gods, Leadville, prehistoric marvels of Mesa Verde and Denver, leaving the travelers in the audience dazed at Drowsy Water Ranch.

The last number of the Pasadena series is scheduled for Oct. 27 and on Oct. 22, as a result of popular demand, Mr. Holmes will present an extra lecture, "Mexico City."

Reports received from various overseas theaters of operations have exploded the myth that only weaklings develop psychiatric disturbances. Streets of a situation rather than a weakness of personality is the basis, announced the Army Medical Corps.

Your Blood Will Help

With our men punching into the Siegfried Line against Nazis who are fighting with determination to stem the march into the Reich, the road toward Berlin is not what we can call an "open road." At least, it will not be so long as Hitler and his generals can prevent it from becoming that.

The determined resistance of the enemy is spilling American blood as our boys push forward. But the millions of pints of blood donated are saving the lives of countless soldiers who fall. Maybe the pint of blood which you gave some months ago has already pulled an American doughboy through. Maybe the pint you will donate soon again will be the very thing that is needed at the critical moment.

The Red Cross needs your help. If you haven't given a pint of your blood, do so at once. If you have, then give again!

Warsaw Tragedy

The white flag went up. The fight was over. Polish patriots who for 65 days had carried on their ill-timed battle against the Germans in Warsaw were at the mercy of the Nazis—who don't know what mercy is. The Polish Government-in-exile charged that the Russians had deliberately delayed their advance toward Warsaw so as to allow the Polish patriots to be destroyed. The Russians, in turn, accused the Poles of starting the uprising for political purposes and without due regard for the military situation. That the uprising was premature is now tragically evident.

It may be many years before the truth of the situation will finally be sifted from the mass of charges and counter-charges. Warsaw has been leveled, thousands of persons have died, but worst of all Russian-Polish relations have suffered another disastrous setback. The Warsaw debacle is over, but the intense ill feeling about it may rise up in the years ahead to endanger the peace in Eastern Europe.

What to Do With Germany

When Secretary Morgenthau recently suggested a plan to deprive postwar Germany of its heavy industry, a great cry went up. "You can't do that to Germany," shouted Americans and Britons who were volubly seconded by none other than Herr Goebels himself. Mr. Morgenthau was accused of desiring to reduce Germany to a mere agricultural state.

As we understand it, however, his plan does not call for the removal of all German industry, but of heavy industry only. After World War I, the Reich was allowed to keep its big plants. In fact, we poured billions of dollars into new ones because we thought they were good investments. Well, they were—for Hitler. When he started the re-armament program the factories were there to be used.

Now, if we again permit heavy industry to flourish in Germany when peace comes—a peace bought at the cost of millions of lives—will we not be inviting the German people to get ready for a third attempt at world domination? Of course, "this time" we would "control" the situation. Yes, for how long?

If Germany started to re-arm five years after the close of the war, of course we would step in. But what about 20 or 25 years from now, when the fear and fury of today have completely subsided? Would we "bother" then?

We are told that German heavy industry is essential to Europe's peacetime economy. But we ask, doesn't Europe suffer incomparably more from German aggression built up on the heavy industries of the Reich, than it would by being deprived of the peacetime benefits of those industries?

An ounce of prevention is worth—millions of lives—our children's lives.

Liberty Ships

Almost two years ago, the keel of a Liberty ship, the Robert E. Peary—was laid at the Richmond shipyards. Four days later the ship was launched, and three days after that it was ready for its trial run.

As we recall, it was loaded immediately after the trial run and put to sea with a full cargo and crew—all this within two weeks of the keel laying.

At that time some persons shook their heads and wondered how long a ship that was "thrown together" could last. Well, so far, we are told, she has done "pretty well." She has been all through the South Seas and the European area, and is still going strong after a collision with another ship, damage from a depth bomb, and a collision with a submerged object.

The Liberty ships were built in a hurry to do a job that could not wait. They were by no means the best built ships ever turned out. But they have done the job. And of the hundreds that were turned out, extremely few ever proved unseaworthy.

Most of them, like the Robert E. Peary, have taken some hard knocks but they're still sailing. That's one of the big reasons why we're winning the war.

Three hundred American women residing in England have enlisted in the Women's Army Corps and are now receiving basic training prior to duty assignment in the European Theater of Operations.

FIRE FLAMES

By One of the Boys

The usual large number failed to turn out for last week's drill. This could be due to several reasons, one of which might have been that last Friday was the 13th day of the month. Some firemen are superstitious. There were enough, however, to almost fill the aisle of Emil's News Stand. Emil was at a loss as to how he would ever get that big refrigerator in place. It was necessary that he have it against the wall on the other side of the counter. About 20 firemen placed it there without any one of them straining a muscle. With Eber Thomas acting as the "boss of the job," the heavy box was lifted over the high counter without a scratch to the counter nor the box. Our two "Bobs" were almost lost in the shuffle. Neither Bob Babbitt nor Bob Newberry are of the gigantic type and when such fellows as Spears, Art Johnson and Peete Kreuscher take one side, opposite to the Bobs, it is only natural that they would set the box down without seeing them. Only when the smaller fellows yelled, "Hold it—we're back here," did the giants allow time for them to escape pressing against the wall.

When this reporter talked with Sam Perloff the other day, it was realized that Sam was mighty glad the "hot refrigerator" was not against the wall separating his place of business. Had it been, the fire of last Saturday night might have caused him more damage than the flood of some time past.

The regular fire drill took the men to the northwest of the city. One of the most complicated connections was made, but not without someone getting a little wet. Our most loyal Dick Hawes must be "allergic" to stray water.

Because cigarettes and cigars are so scarce, it was a rare treat to the firemen to be presented with two cartons of popular brand cigarettes and a box of special cigars from Emil Smith. The meeting room was filled with cigar smoke. This apparently held down the regular smoke that prevails, for there was little argument, not even a heavy fine.

Second Assistant Chief Vernon Uell met with a very serious accident. Having two very energetic sons, we can understand why two fair sized rocks would be misplaced and left in the middle of the driveway. Leaving the house one dark evening, Vern was very much surprised when he stepped on the round side of one rock, only to have his ankle bang against another which was just as hard and of equal size. The result was that he now has his foot in a cast. An ankle bone is broken.

It is really surprising how many times of late we are finding people burning out of hours in the open. It is only with the strictest co-operation that we can continue to hold down our fire losses. We urge people to be careful. If burning is being done in the open, and without the proper clearance, there is bound to be a time when one of these fires will get away. Such a fire cannot be left alone for even a minute. Too many times have they been allowed to escape when folks have said that they were watching it. Watching it will not stop an ember from soaring through the air with the wind. There is always much more danger of wind after the burning hours. REMEMBER THE DAIRY FIRE!

Over at Tom Tyler's we realized that he is very proud of his son in the armed service. Atop his very best goods, he has displayed a wonderful picture of his boy. Return to the station, the FIRE'S OUT!

NOTICE INVITING BIDS
Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the Board of Supervisors of the Los Angeles County Flood Control District, at the office of the said Board at the Hall of Records, City of Los Angeles, State of California, up to 10:00 A.M. Oct. 24, 1944, for the construction of Bailey Canyon Debris Basin in the City of Sierra Madre, California, involving approximately 16,000 cu. yds. of excavation; 800 cu. yds. of compacted fill; 260 cu. yds. of reinforced concrete; 215 cu. yds. of rockfill; 192 lin. ft. of concrete pipe sub-drains; and 140 lin. ft. of rail and wire revetment.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check, or bidder's bond, equal to ten (10) per cent of the amount of bid, payable to the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, as a guarantee that the bidder will, if awarded the contract, enter into a satisfactory agreement and furnish bond in the sum of fifty (50) per cent of the amount of the accepted bid for the faithful performance of the work in accordance with the specifications, and a bond in the sum of fifty (50) per cent of the accepted bid to guarantee the payment of materialmen and laborers.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids not suited, in the judgment of the Board of Supervisors, to the best interests of the district.

Further information will be furnished, and proposal blanks, plans and copies of the specifications may be obtained at the office of the Chief Engineer of the Los Angeles County Flood Control District, 751 South Figueroa Street, Los Angeles, California, upon payment of Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50) for each set. Upon payment of the above sum, the specifications become the property of the bidder and are not to be returned.

The successful bidder will be required to observe all applicable provisions of the Labor Code of the State of California, which provides, among other things, that work may be performed by employees of a contractor upon public work in excess of eight (8) hours per day upon payment of compensation for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours per day at not less than one and one-half times the basic rate of pay, as authorized by Section 1817 of the Labor Code herein-after quoted in paragraph 73.

The Board of Supervisors of the Los Angeles County Flood Control District has ascertained, and the successful bidder will be required to pay, the general prevailing rate of per diem wages for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the contract and a schedule of said prevailing rates is incorporated herein as follows, to-wit:

The war seems to have given the American people a new interest in their railroads. Perhaps it is because they have seen the enormous war load the trains are carrying. Perhaps because so many people, including thousands in uniform, are riding trains for the first time.

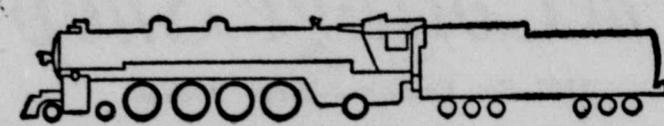

As the war in the Pacific steps up, you'll see more and more S. P. locomotives pulling heavy and heavier war loads. In this advertisement, Southern Pacific shows you:

How to tell Locomotives apart

4-8-8-2

This is the "Big Bertha" of locomotives—Southern Pacific's giant Articulated Consolidation. These mammoth engines pull trains over the High Sierra and other western mountain ranges. "4-8-8-2" is an example of the universal "shorthand" used for designating types of locomotives in the United States. It means that there are 4 small wheels under the leading truck, two sets of 8 driving wheels, and 2 small wheels under the trailing truck. To tell locomotives apart, you simply count the wheels, separating the smaller wheels in the front and back from the big wheels that drive the locomotive. The Articulated Consolidation, or "AC", weighs more than 500 tons, with tender, is 125 feet long, and develops 6,000 horsepower.

These powerful and faithful engines are universally known as the "Mountain" type (designated by "MT" on the cab), used in both freight and passenger service. Length of engine and tender, 97 feet. Weight, 330 tons.

4-6-2

This is another faithful locomotive known throughout the United States as the "Pacific" type (designated by the letter "P" on the cab). Engine and tender are 91 feet long and weigh about 285 tons.

WHITE LINED SHADES
mean better light

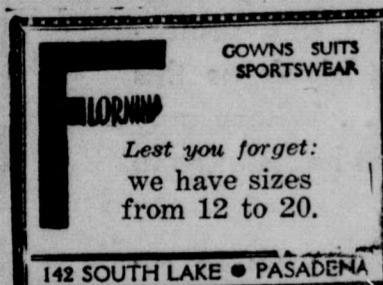

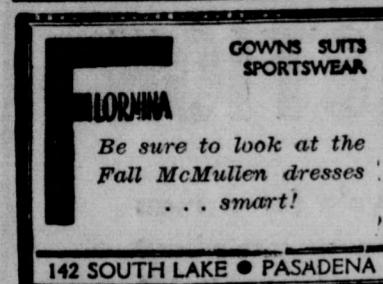

Good light protects precious eyesight. By replacing the dark-colored lining in a lamp shade with a white lining, you can as much as double the light with no additional use of electricity! There are two ways of doing this: Spray or paint parchment shades with white or light colored paint, or roll the lamp shade on white paper and pencil mark to cut, as shown. Then fit the lining into the shade and fasten the seam with scotch tape. For fabric shades, use white or light material.

V-Day Program Told by Nazarene

An Unusual Find "The Cottage Shop"

The Church of the Nazarene announces a Prayer and Praise for V-Day. If the news of the capitulation of Germany is received during the night or early morning the church will open at 10 a.m. If the news is received after that time the church will be open at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

If you have a free afternoon you'll enjoy dropping in at The Cottage Shop, 1107 S. Baldwin; but don't stop if you have only 10 minutes—you won't get away. Modern and antique imports are all over the place, things you have never seen before. Charming things for gifts and others that you couldn't possibly give away because you will want them yourself. And outdoor things, plants and garden gadgets. The shop is unusual, a grand piano and huge fireplace are in the main display room which has white paneled walls, yellow ceiling and chintz curtained windows.

The hostess, Mrs. Hortense Seymour, is charming and you will feel that you are the one person she had in mind when she opened the shop.

Cal-Tech Gets Urgent Demand for War Rockets

Faced by an urgent demand from high government officials for a huge increase in the production of war rockets, America's newest and outstandingly successful secret weapon, the management of the California Institute of Technology, leader in the field of rocket development and manufacture, has issued an all-out appeal for many more male workers in practically every classification.

Spokesmen for the Institute stated that so great has been the success of the rocket on all fronts and on every ocean, that the demand from the armed forces for an ever-increasing supply of the weapon has placed it among the seven most important items needed by America today. It was further stated that an immediate and adequate supply of these rockets might easily be a factor in gaining a more rapid victory on both the Atlantic and Pacific fronts, with a resultant saving of countless lives.

Particularly and desperately needed at once are inspectors, assemblers, operators and warehousemen. No experience is required on these jobs, openings are available on all shifts and there is plenty of overtime work.

Recently the Navy Bureau of Ordnance, in a public release, credited the development of the rocket to the co-operative effort of the engineers and scientists of Cal-Tech, revealing at the same time the splendid part played by thousands of Pasadenans in the production of the weapon, and the care with which they guarded the secret.

Officials of the Institute state that in order to prevent any long waits at the employment office at 1037 E. Green St., an augmented staff of clerks and interviewers are on duty to assist applicants in filling out applications and placing them in positions for which they are most suited. An interviewer is also stationed permanently at the United States Employment Service office.

While it is stressed as the desire of officials of the Institute that all those now employed in essential war work remain on their present jobs, it is nevertheless hoped that hundreds of men throughout Los Angeles county, not now working, or performing less essential work, join the workers at Cal-Tech and help in producing the weapon so urgently needed by our fighting men.

Fort Ord Magazine Uses Sgt. Hinojos Best Pieces

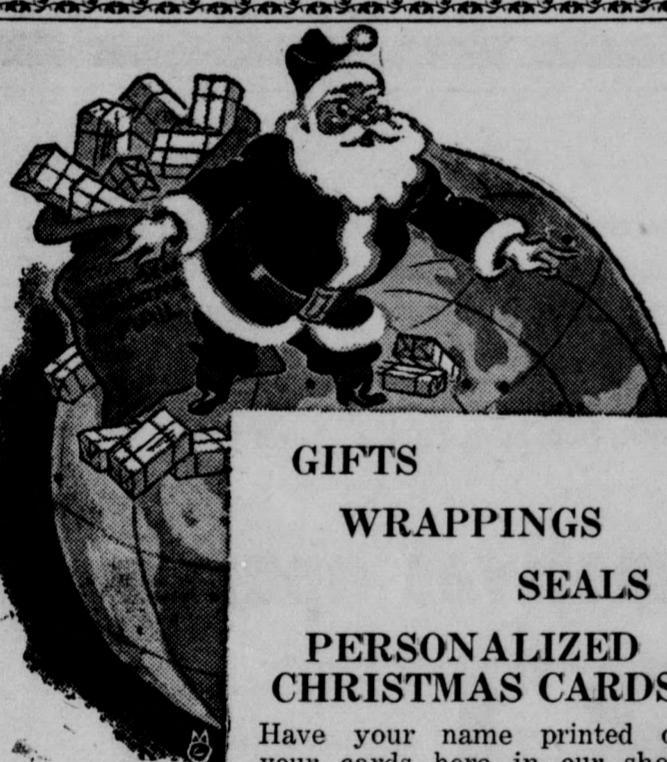

The fourth anniversary number of the Fort Ord Panorama, a magazine published weekly at the fort, carried a cover page by Sgt. Joe A. Hinojos, staff photographer, former Sierra Madre boy. It displayed the best of Panorama's past cover pictures. Many of the clever shots have been reproduced in newspapers and magazines and are among the most outstanding photographic achievements of servicemen-photographers to come out of the war.

DANTE, MAGICIAN, IS COMING TO BILTMORE THEATRE, OCT. 24

Dante, world's greatest master of mystery, combines the deftness of a brilliant illusionist with all the art of a skillful stage producer. His gifts will be cleverly exploited in his new all-new mystery revue, "Cockeyed Inferno," which will open a limited engagement at the Biltmore Theatre in Los Angeles, on Tuesday, October 24.

Dante has everything in magic. His astonishing repertoire ranges from card manipulation, sleight of hand and conjuring to the most complicated feats of bodily transference and disappearance that are breath-taking in their daring and novelty.

Performances will be presented every night with matinees on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday. Special popular prices will be in effect in order that the entire family can witness this spectacular and mammoth stage production of Dante's.
